

I strongly oppose allowing any changes to Indiana's telephone privacy law. If we go down this road the law will become meaningless. The will of the people is to to stop these annoying phone calls. Thank you. Mike Brendle